

Posted: September 20, 2023

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

TITLE: VISITING ASSISTANT PROFESSOR    DEPT: EARTH & ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

REG             TEMP             FULL TIME             PART TIME

JOB DUTIES & REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

The New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology seeks a full-time, visiting faculty member to fill a temporary non-tenure-track position for the 2024 Spring & Fall semesters. This individual will teach up to two courses per semester (typically one undergraduate course and one graduate level course) and offer adequate office hours to advise students in the course. Plans, Administers, and coordinates research, students, and related activities at NMT. Specific major tasks include but are not limited to develop, conduct and supervise a research programs to investigate topics either unique and/or of potentially broad application. Solicit funding and other assistance from governmental and private organizations and programs to support the research programs and activities as described herein. Publish results in appropriate scientific journals. Attend conferences and other meetings to present research results, collaborate with colleagues, and building relationships with potential colleagues and students. A Ph.D. required in Earth Sciences or related field). Ability to address significant geological, geochemical, and/or geophysical questions related to hydrology in teaching and research. Defensive driving course and 15 passenger van certification required after appointment. To apply, please submit a complete New Mexico Tech employment application (available at <http://www.nmt.edu/hr-jobs-at-nmt>), cover letter, curriculum vitae, and the names of three references all in one single PDF attachment to nmtjobapps@npe.nmt.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Apply to: nmtjobapps@npe.nmt.edu