INSTRUCTOR OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology (NMT) invites applications for two 9-month non-tenure-track instructor positions in computer science that will perform teaching (80%), and service (20%). Teaching will be approximately twenty-four credits per year of undergraduate and graduate courses.

Specific responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and/or graduate courses in Computer Science, serving as research advisor for undergraduate computer science students, preparing various accountability and assessment reports, and supporting the program certification, accreditation, and other efforts as needed. The successful candidate can start at NMT in August of 2022 or a later semester as negotiated.

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering (CSE) is one of the oldest computer science programs west of the Mississippi and offers an array of bachelor, master, and doctoral degrees in computer science, information technology, and management. With 13 faculty and approximately 230 students, the department offers an intimate, highly focused setting for obtaining an education and conducting research.

The position will stay open until filled. For best consideration, please apply by June 30, 2022. Candidates must complete an online application and electronically attach a single PDF document, incorporating all of the following: cover letter highlighting expertise and experience most suited to the position; curriculum vitae (CV); statement of research interests and approach; statement of teaching interests; and list of three to five professional references. Materials should be sent to nmtjobapps@npe.nmt.edu c/o Rosa Jaramillo and Dr. Clinton Jeffery (jeffery@cs.nmt.edu). Inquiries should be directed to Dr. Clinton Jeffery, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, jeffery@cs.nmt.edu, 575-835-5549.

NMT is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can learn, live, and work in an atmosphere of tolerance, civility and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual. NMT is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Excellent benefits (health, vision, dental), tuition fee waiver, and a generous retirement plan.
