ENGINEERING SCIENCE INSTRUCTOR

The New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology (New Mexico Tech) seeks an instructor of engineering science courses to begin in August of 2021. Applicants should hold a bachelor's degree in an engineering field and at least a master's degree with preference being given to those holding a doctorate. Applicants should submit a CV, statement of teaching philosophy and interests, and list of 3 references as one pdf. The application should be sent to Ms. Rosa Jaramillo (nmtjobapps@npe.nmt.edu). Questions can be sent to the search committee at corey.leclerc@nmt.edu. Review of applications will begin May 1, 2021 and continue until the position is filled.

The engineering science program includes a range of courses from introduction to engineering, computer programming, circuits, statics, dynamics, fluid mechanics, heat & mass transfer, thermodynamics, and engineering economics. Courses are offered to 7 of the ABET accredited engineering programs at New Mexico Tech. The instructor will be expected to teach as well as contribute to student recruitment and outreach as well as advising of non-declared majors. New Mexico Tech is a science and engineering university composed of 2000 undergraduate and graduate students located in Socorro, New Mexico.

Equal Employment Opportunity: NMT is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can learn, live, and work in an atmosphere of tolerance, civility and respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual. NMT is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Benefits: Excellent benefits (health, vision, dental), tuition fee waiver, and a generous retirement plan.

Regional Attractions: New Mexico Tech is located in Socorro, in the scenic Rio Grande River Valley of central New Mexico, 75 miles south of Albuquerque with its many attractions, and 139 miles south of Santa Fe. Nearby mountains and desert canyons provide opportunities for excellent hiking, climbing, and mountain biking. The Bosque del Apache National Wildlife Refuge, located just south of Socorro along a major north-south flyway, offers some of the best birding in the USA.
