4. Action Items.
   a) Approval of NMHED Capital Project Transmittal Sheet, VP McDaniel.
      • Playas Secure Warehouse Shell Project.
      VP McDaniel presented a summary of the project. The warehouse will be 28,640 square feet, and it will be paid for with federal money. He requested approval for the site work and construction of the shell at a cost of $17,524,233. The project will then require approval from the Higher Education Department (in September) and the State Board of Finance (in October). AVP Carlos Romero said NMT aims to issue an RFP prior to receiving state approval. He also said the majority of the funding needs to be spent by September 2022. He then presented diagrams of the land and the building. Regent Armijo moved approval and Regent King seconded. The motion passed unanimously.

- Playas Roadway Reconstruction & Drainage Project.
VP McDaniel presented the plan to replace 1.1 miles of roadway. He requested contingent approval. He said the roadways are deteriorating. The project is 95% funded by the NM Department of Transportation. NMT’s Playas funds will cover $118,087 of a project with a total cost of more than $2 million. Regent Lepre moved approval, and Regent Espinoza seconded. The motion passed unanimously.

b) Approval of Resolution of NMT Regents in Support of Regional Broadband Access.
Regent King presented a resolution to support regional broadband access. She said other higher education institutions have signed on to this resolution. Regent Armijo moved approval and Regent King seconded. The motion passed unanimously.
Vanessa Grain said she would collect signatures via DocuSign. Regent Armijo then summarized Mayor Bhasker’s and the City of Socorro’s recent actions to bring broadband to the city.

c) Approval of Regents Fall Meeting Dates, Chair Peacock.
Regent Peacock said the annual retreat will begin with check-in on Wednesday, August 25. Thursday and Friday have been set aside for the meetings. Board members suggested dates for the next two meetings: Thursday, Sept. 30, and Friday, Nov. 19.

5. Individual Board Member Comments.
