The New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology ASCE Student Chapter requests funding assistance from the SGA so that we may attend the Region 6 Student Conference.

The American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) hosts annual conferences and symposia in each of its regions, which provide opportunities for students to demonstrate their engineering prowess while representing their universities in several competitions. New Mexico Tech resides within ASCE Region 6, which we share with Oklahoma, Texas, and Mexico. This year the conference is being held in Amarillo, Texas, hosted by West Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University. It occurs from April 12th to April 14th.

Our projected transportation costs, between the distance to and from Amarillo (728 miles) combined with driving within the city (anticipated to be 100 miles), will come out to $623 (at the upcoming facilities rate of $0.75 per mile). Meal assistance will be needed for the first and last days of travel. Six meals, for each of the 20 students attending, will require $1800. We would also like to request shirts for the competition to further represent New Mexico Tech, for which we are requesting $1800. Additionally, for eight hotel rooms budgeted for $94 per night we will need $3008.

Finally, registration for the conference is $100 per student, main competition team registration is $300, and regional event registration is $75 per team. That requires $3650 (20 students in attendance, two primary teams, and two regional teams). This places the grand total of our request at $6073.

New Mexico Tech has attended these conferences for more than a decade. Each year teams of seniors from the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering compete in the concrete canoe and steel bridge competitions, alongside other students competing in smaller events. Once again we would like to represent New Mexico Tech.
